Dear Patrons,

We as an Indian feel proud of what Sachin Tendulkar has achieved by hitting 50th century. Not only we admire him for his cricketing ability and the passion with which he has played for his team but the way he has carried himself on and off the field for 21 long years is much more commendable.

Corporate cricket not only provides a platform to break the monotonous day to day schedules but also ensure synergies of team members coming from different departments and playing for the brand. 10th Eventus 20Twenty Corporate Cricket Tournament, which concluded on 19.12.2010 (Sunday) at the Air Force Palam Ground, saw the game of cricket not only being played with utmost competitiveness but with tons of sportsman spirit where high values were driven home to the maximum by the players, spectators and organizers.

Since our modest beginning in 2001, through your consistent support we have been hosting the biggest corporate tournaments in Delhi and NCR. Eventus got an encouraging response from teams as the number of teams increased to 56 as compared to 44 teams participated last year to mark our 10th anniversary. We at Eventus, would like to thank all our teams for making the 10th Eventus Cricket Tournament a rocking success.

We not only provide an opportunity to fulfill your passion for cricket and make you physically fit, we also help in building team spirit, keep you updated by providing statistics throughout the tournament to stimulate your excitement and bringing all core areas of the tournament visible to you. We ensure that teams participating with us should be entertained to the hilt. We inculcate the spirit of competitiveness among our participants by making the teams play in different categories and make them play tough cricket.

We are highly indebted to Reebok India Company for their continuous support to this tournament for the past 10 years and Mail Today for powering the tournament for last 2 years, we look forward to the same support and power in the years to come. This year WhizMeeting joined our tournament as Associate sponsors while Motorola & UGCS added further value to the tournament by coming in as Co-sponsors.
